First Day.

ELKHART, IND., APRIL 4TH, 1900.

The fifty-seventh session of the North Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, was opened in the Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, of Elkhart, Indiana, by Bishop Cyrus D. Foss, D. D., LL. D., at 8:30 A. M., on Wednesday, April 4th, 1900, by announcing Hymn No. 798, which was sung, and the Bishop read for Scripture lessons the 100th Psalm, and the first nine verses of the first chapter of 1st Peter. Prayer was offered by Dr. George K. Morris, and Hymn No. 656, "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," was sung.

"And are we yet alive?"

The Bishop requested the Pastor of the church and the Presiding Elders to meet him in the chancel, and assist in consecrating the elements and in the administering of the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

Bishop Foss then briefly addressed the Conference, and the Sacramental service closed.

Roll.—The Bishop requested the Secretary of the former session to call the roll, and the following answered to their names:

AFTERNOON SESSION.

FRIDAY, APRIL 6TH, 1900.

Conference met in joint session, with the Lay Electoral Conference, at 4:00 P. M., Bishop Foss in the chair. Hymn No. 1,

"O, for a thousand tongues to sing," was sung, and Prof. J. C. Murray offered prayer.

The Bishop then addressed the joint session briefly, and introduced the Hon. Charles C. Binkley, Chairman of the Lay Electoral Conference, who introduced Hon. Albert A. Small and Albert D. Cline, Lay Delegates-elect, and Leonidas H. Bunyan and George T. Herrick, provisional Lay Delegates.

Judge Binkley then briefly addressed the Conferences, after which Bishop Foss addressed the body on "The Model Layman."

Hymn No. 797,

"Blest be the tie that binds,"

was sung.

Abstract.—On motion, the Secretary of the Lay Conference was requested to furnish an abstract of the proceedings of the Conference for publication in the Annual Conference journal.

Telegram.—A telegram, in answer to the one sent to Bishop Fowler, was read, announcing improvement in his condition.

Second Ballot.—On motion, it was ordered that a second ballot be now taken.

M. A. Harlan introduced the following:

That the person having the highest number of votes, the same being a majority of all votes cast, shall be the fifth Delegate to the General Conference, and that the two persons having the next highest number of votes, provided the number be a majority, shall be the reserve Delegates.

On the vote being taken on this motion, a division was called for, and on a standing vote there were 96 votes in favor to 69 against.

The second ballot was then taken for Delegates to General Conference. On motion, it was ordered that the result of the ballot be posted in the lecture room of the church.

Conference, on motion, adjourned. Benediction by Bishop Foss.

Fourth Day.

SATURDAY, APRIL 7TH, 1900.

Conference met for devotional service at 8:30 A. M., E. L. Semans in charge. He announced Hymn No. 762,

"My faith looks up to Thee," which was sung, and A. Greenman led in prayer. Hymn 393,

"Just as I am, without one plea," was sung, and a part of the 3d chapter of Ephesians was read as a Scripture lesson. T. Stabler, J. S. McCarty and F. M. Stone led in prayer. Hymn No. 581,

"My soul, be on thy guard," was sung, and W. M. Nelson led in prayer, closing with the Lord's Prayer, thus ending the devotional meeting.

9:00 A. M. Bishop Foss took the chair, and Conference business was taken up.

Journal.— The journal of yesterday's sessions was read and approved.

J. D. CROAN,
J. Z. BARRETT,
S. F. HARTER.

Change in Receiving Members.—J. W. Welch introduced the following, which was read, and action deferred until later:

WHEREAS, There is a growing dissatisfaction among ministers and laymen with our method of receiving members into our church; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, earnestly request the coming General Conference, through the delegates elected by both this body and the lay Electoral Conference, so to change the discipline as to make it read, substantially, as follows: Any person desiring membership in the church will be interviewed on doctrine, polity and Christian experience, by a committee appointed for that purpose by the Fourth Quarterly Conference of each year, consisting of not less than three nor more than five persons, with the pastor as ex-officio chairman.

When such committee shall receive satisfactory information on the points enumerated, and any others that they may think proper to present, they shall recommend the candidate for confirmation as a member of the church.

Such confirmation shall take place, as a rule, in the presence of the congregation, at a regular service, by the pastor. The form of confirmation shall be similar to that now used in the reception of members from probation, with such modifications as to make it conform to the revision anticipated herein.

J. W. WELCH,
W. J. VIGUS, AND MANY OTHERS.

Eleventh Question.—The Eleventh Question was called: "What others have been elected and ordained Deacons?" As Local Preachers: Charles W. At 8:30 A. M., E. F. Hasty, at the appointment of Bishop Foss, took the chair.

Circuit Salary Statement.—On motion of M. A. Harlan, it was ordered that hereafter the Circuit Salary Statement be printed each year as a part of the Statistics.

Reports.—The following committees made report, and reports were adopted: Sustentation Committee, Auditing Committee Sustentation Funds, Missionary Cause, Parsonages and Furniture, Auditing Committee of Accounts of Secretary, Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, District Conference Journals, Deaconess' Work, Church Extension, Sunday-Schools and Tracts, Class Meetings, American Bible Society, Social and Moral Questions, Woman's Work in the Church, and Epworth League. (See these reports printed in Journal.)

Treasurer's Accounts.—C. E. White, A. G. Neal and J. S. Cain were appointed a committee to audit the accounts of the Treasurer.

Statistical Cards.—The following resolution was read and adopted:

WHEREAS, A member of our Conference, the Rev. Tom C. Neal, has gotten up a Statistical Card and Blanks, which, in our judgment, are much superior to those sent out by the Book Concern, being much more simple and orderly in arrangement, we therefore memorialize the General Conference to meet in the city of Chicago May 4th, 1900, calling attention to this form and urging its adoption by the General Conference for the whole church.

L. J. NAFTZGER, L. A. BEEKS,
D. V. WILLIAMS, E. F. HASTY.

Bill.—The Statistical Secretary presented a bill of $7.80. On motion, it was ordered that a collection be taken to pay this and a bill of seventy cents due the Treasurer. The collection was taken, amounting to $12.15, which was given to the Statistical Secrerary, with instructions to pay the Treasurer's bill and retain the balance for his own use.

Costs in Woolpert Case.—The committee to whom was referred the claim for costs in the Woolpert case, reported as follows, and report was adopted:

In the matter of the claims for costs and expenses, in the case of D. C. Woolpert, which was referred to this Committee, we submit the following report:

1st. That the costs and expenses of the prosecuting witness be not paid.

2d. Inasmuch as this prosecution was not ordered by this Conference, and inasmuch as we cannot find either law or precedent fixing any responsibility upon this Conference for costs and expenses in such cases, and as we do not know of any fund for the payment thereof, and inasmuch as we believe that the spirit of our laws do not contemplate the paying of such costs and expenses by the annual Conference, we hereby recommend that all of said claims be not paid by this Conference.

HENRY W. BENNETT, W. J. VIGUS,
H. J. NORRIS, E. E. NEAL,
J. A. BEATTY, E. F. HASTY.

(O. S. Harrison not signing.)

Resolutions.—A Resolution of Thanks to the Church and citizens of Elkhart and others was introduced by J. C. White, and adopted. (See resolutions.)

Also one from the Members of the Church in Elkhart, which was accepted and ordered printed in the journal. (See resolutions.)

Present to Mahin.— On behalf of the pastors of the Richmond District, A. W. Lamport, in a fitting speech, presented A. E. Mahin and wife with $40 in gold. Bro. Mahin responded.

Standing Committees.—The list of Standing Committees for the year 1901 were read and elected.

Transfers.— The following were announced as transferred to this Conference: Otto A. Trabue, in Studies of the Fourth Year, from the West Nebraska Conference, and Madison Swadener, an Elder from the Cincinnati Conference.

Resolution.—The following was introduced and read :

With pleasure we desire to express our high estimate of the character and abilities of the retiring Presiding Elders, A. E. Mahin, F. T. Simpson and C. G. Hudson, and hereby express our deep regret in separating from them in the work of their high and responsible office, and wish them God-speed and prosperity wherever their lot may be cast.

J. A. LEWELLEN,
C. U. WADE,
M. S. MARBLE.

Adjournment.— On motion of C. G. Hudson, it was ordered that after the reading of the journal and of the appointments, the Conference stand adjourned without delay.

The Bishop then briefly addressed the Conference, read 2d Timothy, 4 : 1-5, and announced Hymn No. 816,

"And let our bodies part," which was sung, after which the Bishop read the appointments, and the Conference stood adjourned.

COMMITTEE ON AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

WHEREAS, the Bible lies at the foundation of the Church, at home and abroad; for "The missionary without a Bible is as helpless as a soldier without his sword, for the sword of the Spirit is the Word of God." The American Bible Society furnishes Bibles at cost, and gives thousands of volumes for free distribution here and in our mission fields. The recent opening of the Philippines and other new mission work has laid on it heavy requirements. Therefore, we appeal to our churches to give an increasingly liberal to support the American Bible Society. And

WHEREAS, under the new policy of the Society, the responsibility of fostering the interests of the Auxiliaries, and the raising of monies, primarily rests upon the local churches and ministers; therefore, we urge our ministers and churches to use diligent effort to awaken renewed interest in the Auxiliaries.

We recommend that our churches and pastors extend to the Rev. Wm. R. Henderson, D. D., the Field Agent of the American Bible Society, a cordial welcome when he asks for an opportunity to present the Bible cause.

CLASS MEETING.

We believe, with our fathers, in the doctrine of Christian assurance, and in the Class Meeting as an indispensable means in the development of this experience. In common with our brethren, we regret the indifference toward, and the neglect of, this means of grace by some of our members.

Therefore, we urge that our people, both by precept and example, avail themselves, whenever possible, of this time-honored and God-owned means of grace; and that we, as Pastors, exercise wisdom in the appointment of efficient leaders.

U. S. A. BRIDGE, Chairman.
GEORGE COCKING, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION.

We consider the work of the Board of Church Extension as one of the most important fields of operation in the Church to spread and establish our beloved Methodism, and evangelize our country, and should be made to occupy as prominent a place as any of our church benevolences.

Therefore, we urge our Pastors to faithfully present the claims of the Board of Church Extension to their congregations, and to make their best endeavor to meet their full apportionment.

DEACONESS' HOME AND HOSPITAL.

The members of the Board of Control of Deaconess' Work submit the following:

1. We sincerely believe that the Deaconess' movement is of God, and are devoutly thankful for the widely extended and magnificent results achieved by our Deaconesses in the many branches of their work. We confidently expect ever increasing and gratifying results as our people grow in the knowledge and use of this old, and yet new, form of evangelism. To this end, as opportunity offers, we will instruct the people in our charges regarding all the phases and the great value of the work.

2. As yet, no one residing within the bounds of this Conference has been licensed by the Board of Control of Deaconess' Work of this Conference. We earnestly request all young ladies who feel themselves called of God to the work of a Deaconess, and have taken the necessary preliminary steps, to apply to the Board of Control of Deaconess' Work of the North Indiana Conference for a license.

We commend Miss Della Pearson, of High street, Muncie, soon to graduate from a training school, to the favorable consideration of our people.

3. We are especially thankful for the excellent beginning made toward the establishment of a Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess' Home for the State of Indiana, at Indianapolis. We very earnestly commend this institution to the cordial sympathy, prayers and liberality of all our people.

4. We nominate Hon. C. C. Binkley, Rev. Leslie J. Naftzger and Rev. B. A. Kemp, as Directors of the above Hospital and Deaconess' Home, for the ensuing year.

W. H. Daniel, Chairman.
E. E. Neal, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Having examined the records of the Muncie District Conference, Rev. D. V. Williams, Secretary, we find them kept with the most painstaking care. Every detail of the work done is perfectly preserved, not only in typewritten reports, but in tabulated form, so as to be referred to in a moment. We heartily commend the work of this Secretary and his assistant.

No other record came into our hands.

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

DEPAUW UNIVERSITY.

The present college year in DePauw University has been very gratifying. The student enrollment will run about 60 above last year, and will reach about 700. The college year opened last fall one week later than usual, on account of the Indiana Conference holding its session in Greencastle; but the college year will have the full number of days, by extending one week more into June, closing June 14th.

The student body is of high order, perhaps grading among the best years as to personnel and scholarship. The members of the faculty have worked harmoniously and faithfully. We congratulate ourselves on having a faculty of high grade men and women for their several departments.

Good health, good order and good moral sentiments have pervaded the University this college year. Rev. Mr. Ostrom and Mr. Hillis held a two weeks' meeting in the College Chapel, beginning with the mid-winter term. The meetings were a great blessing to the town as well as the college. The toning up of the moral sentiment was marked; and a number of students were converted.

DePauw University is our one great school. It should be known more and more as a center of moral restraint and religious fervor. We are glad to learn that there is a marked tendency on the part of the administration to go back to the old-time character of religious interest and revival power. We believe the University should not only help the church keep its young people in sympathy with the church, but that it should be one of the great influences to lead our young people to God.

The State can teach mathematics, languages, sciences, and the humanities; but it cannot teach faith in God and loyalty to Christ, without which an education is fatally defective. We believe the cardinal doctrine of right education is obedience to God; hence, the church university is a necessity for the stability of civil government and the progress of the Kingdom of Christ. It is evident, therefore, that our first duty is loyalty to our own University.

We are gratified to learn that the collections from our Conference this year, for the current expense fund of DePauw University, are $4,500, which is $400 over last year.

We are informed by the Chancellor that this college year, and perhaps the next, will be harder to keep out of debt, for current expenses, than any we have had in recent years, or that we are likely to have soon. The DePauw estate is beginning to settle. Within the next three years, it is hoped, the entire property will be divided, and the University will have at least $250,000 more added to its endowment. But the necessity is laid upon us to maintain at least our present teaching force, and with the growing student body we must increase the number of teachers in the immediate future. We dare not let the University sink in debt. We must increase our support to the current expense fund. We must keep, not only a sufficient number of teachers to do the work for our boys and girls, but the teachers must be equal to the best around us. The times have greatly improved. All church enterprises are prosperous. Therefore,

Be it Resolved, (1) We recommend to our presiding elders to apportion fifteen cents per member, under the provisions of the Discipline, from our people, for the "Sustaining Fund" of DePauw University, as our educational collection, and that this collection be reported in open Conference.

(2) We will inform our people on the needs and opportudities of DePauw University, and do what we can to influence our young people to attend our own schools.

(3) We will observe "DePauw Day," and, as far as possible, observe Sunday, May 13th, as that day.

(4) We rejoice in the achievements of the Chancellor, in bringing the University back to the hearts of our ministers and people, and securing, this past year, in bonds and other good securities, about $75,000 for endowments. We give him a hearty welcome to all our pulpits, and will join in plans for the success of the Twentieth Century Movement for DePauw.

(5) We reaffirm our action of last year, concerning the permanent endowment of $200,000 and the thank offering gift of $50,000, from our ministers of Indiana, to endow a chair in DePauw University, as found on page 61 of our Minutes.

(6) We realize that the time is ripe for pushing the work of securing a thank offering from all of our people, as the popular gift to endowments of our University, and we realize that our Chancellor cannot do the work in detail. We therefore recommend that the District Committee, under the Presiding Elder, who is Chairman, push the work in all our charges under the "Long Roll" methods, which all the conferences have adopted.

(7) That a committee of three be appointed to express the thanks and hearty appreciation of the Conference to Mrs. Eliza A. Meharry Jeffers, of Richmond, Ind., for her magnificent gift of $35,000, for the endowment of a chair in DePauw University; and also Mrs. Ellen Smith, of Muncie, Indiana, for her gift of $3,000 for endowment.

We recommend that William D. Parr be elected trustee of DePauw University, to succeed himself, and that A. W. Lamport and C. U. Wade be elected visitors from September 1st, 1900, for two years.

We recommend that E. E. Neal and E. F. Albertson be appointed visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute; Sherman Powell to Drew Theological School, and J. K. Waltz to Boston Theological School.

THE AMERICAN UNIVERSITY.

The American University stands for Americanism, Protestantism and Methodism. It is a great post-graduate school at our Nation's capital, where training of the highest character and original investigation can be pursued under Christian auspices, close to the marvelous Congressional Library and fourteen great scientific collections, owned by the government and now open to the students of this University.

The University is making great headway, and God is raising up friends to it on every hand. One splendid building, the Hall of History, is completed, and another building is to be commenced this fall.

Being a post-graduate university, there is no room for jealousy. It does not parallel the teaching of any school now in existence, but it takes the place in this country of the great universities abroad.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY.

This institution is located within the bounds of our own Conference. It is under the control of the National Association of Local Preachers of the Methodist Episcopal Church; is Methodistic, thoroughly spiritual, has a devoted faculty and a commendable course of study. We commend it to the sympathy and favorable consideration of our people.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

As our Discipline recommends that young men expecting to enter the ministry should first take a college course, and then a thorough training in one of our theological schools, we call attention to —

Boston Theological School — our oldest — with its furnished rooms in the center of this classic city, its cheap living, able instructors, evangelistic spirit and training in methods of modern missionary work.

Drew Theological Seminary — its splendid location, its beautiful new building, its library and excellent faculty — furnishing desirable facilities for the training of our ministry.

Garrett Biblical Institute — with its ideal location in the central West, its university library and laboratories, and scholarly instructors, giving it first rank among such institutions in the land.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We urge that special attention be given this year to the Children's Day Collection, and the full amount paid to the Board of Education.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATION SOCIETY.

We, your Committee on Freedman's Aid and Southern Education, submit the following report:

We have a profound feeling of gratitude for the advancements made by the Society, and for the report we are enabled to make of a gain of about $600.00 over last year. We trust that it will do much toward rallying to the help of the Society a host of friends, when it is known that the debt has been reduced from over $210,000, a year ago, to about $180,000 now. We are convinced of the necessity of continued effort to liquidate this burdensome debt.

We are grateful for the 2,640 students in the industrial schools of the Society; and there have been more than two hundred thousand in these schools, yet not one of these has ever been charged with the crime for which negroes have been lynched, and there has not been a lynching in the county in which any of these schools are located.

WHEREAS, The Christian Educator is becoming more and more instructive and helpful in showing the progress of the great work being carried on; therefore,

Resolved, That we most heartily commend it to our people.

We commend most heartily our able and efficient secretaries, Drs. Hamilton and Mason, and the successful management of the Society; also, the very efficient help rendered the North Indiana Conference by Miss Scott, the Field Secretary.

Resolved, That we accept the apportionment of $3,500 to this Conference, and recommend that the Presiding Elders apportion the amount to the Districts.

MISSIONARY CAUSE.

The Committee submit the following:

WHEREAS, the "Great Commission" of our Master has never been repealed, and is just as imperative as when He said, "Go ye into all the world and Preach my Gospel to every Creature." Therefore,

Resolved, That we greatly appreciate the open doors to the Messengers of the Cross, not only in the Dark Continents, but in the Islands of the sea. And believe that the time has come when all shall know the Lord, "Whom to know aright is life Eternal."

That we acknowledge the wisdom of putting the World-Wide Mission into the homes of our people.

That we believe in, and endorse the plan as set forth in our Discipline for Missionary Effort.

That we are in sympathy with, and rejoice in the splendid work done by the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society; also, the splendid Missionary zeal of the great Epworth League of the Church.

Submitted,

H. W. BENNETT.
J. M. BAKER.

SOCIAL AND MORAL QUESTIONS.

Your Committee present the following:

As we have entered upon the last year of the nineteenth century, we pledge each other to bring before our Epworth Leagues, and all other societies of the Church, the importance and necessity of not only a "complete abandonment of all worldly amusements," but of an immediate, unconditianal consecration to the service of God. And will urge, with christian affection and great earnestness from our pulpits, and by personal effort in our pastoral work, the necessity of all attending the social means of grace, especially the prayer and class meetings, making all organizations outside of the Church second in their claim of attendance and money.

We furthermore agree to ring out the call from our pulpits for a systematic everyday reading of the Bible, and home worship every morning and evening, thus spending the remaining months of the nineteenth century in getting ready to greet the twentieth century with one of the greatest revivals ever known in the bounds of the North Indiana Conference.

A cry rings out from a Methodist pulpit in one of the cities of the far West: "An intellectual and spiritual, but not an emotional religion." Indiana Methodism answers with a call for an intellectual, spiritual and emotional religion, after the type of Pentecost.

J. B. Ford, President.

PARSONAGE AND FURNITURE.

We, your Committee on Parsonage and Furniture, recommend that each pastor, on those charges having no parsonage, would earnestly urge the Quarterly Conference to take action that the charge, so far as practicable, comply with the recommendation of the General Conference (par. 318 of Discipline) in reference to the building of a parsonage on those charges having none. We further recommend that each pastor have the local Committee on Parsonage and Furniture make a written report to the fourth Quarterly Conference and the Presiding Elder the condition of the parsonage and grounds, and that said report be recorded in the Quarterly Conference minutes.

We reaffirm, in part, the resolutions of last year; therefore,

Resolved, (1) That the Presiding Elder be requested at the first Quarterly Conference to inquire into the condition of each parsonage.

(2) That the committee on parsonage and furniture be urged to purchase at least one article of heavy furniture each year.

(3) That the trustees of our parsonage property be requested to provide means for keeping the buildings in repair, and also beautifying the grounds.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND TRACTS.

We, your committee on Sunday Schools and Tracts, submit the following report:

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

WHEREAS, The Sunday School is one of the most important factors in the religious and educational life of the church, teaching the Bible to vast multitudes and thereby becoming the nursery of the church; therefore, be it

Resolved, (1) That we urge that great care be taken in selecting teachers who are intelligent, devoted, loyal and godly in their daily walk and conversation.

(2) That wherever practicable, let normal classes be organized, that the greatest efficiency and best results may be secured.

(3) That there be a greater effort made on the part of superintendents and teachers, to secure a larger attendance of Sunday School scholars at the services of the church.

(4) That we urge the use of our own literature in all our schools, and that Home Departments be organized wherever possible.

TRACTS.

WHEREAS, The Tract system is a great evangelizing agency, in both home and foreign fields; therefore, be it

Resolved, That as pastors we recommend that Tracts be used freely, and that we recommend the raising of the full amount apportioned to our Conference this year.

SUSTENTATION.

We, your Committee on Sustentation, report as follows:

We recognize the fact of the great need of financial help for certain charges within the bounds of our own Conference, and we are highly gratified with the amounts raised this year.

We recommend that the sum of $2,000 be apportioned to the districts, by the Presiding Elders, for the coming year.

We recommend that the distribution of the amounts raised in each district be applied to the new and needy charges in the districts in which the respective amounts are raised, by a committee of three in each district, of which committee the Presiding Elder shall be a member and chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

The Methodist Episcopal Church is on record as being unconditionally opposed to the legalized liquor traffic. From this position, as a Conference, we will never retreat. The battle between the forces of Temperance, on the one side, and Intemperance on the other, is on. There is persistent effort to ignore and override the temperance sentiment of this country. In the name of God, we protest.

"The army canteen issue, as it exists to-day, can not be settled by proving either that the canteens are good things intrinsically, or that they are the less of two evils. The present contention is, that Congress passed a law abolishing them, and the President, through his Attorney General, extracted from the law a meaning exactly contrary to that which its framers had in mind." We believe, therefore, the Griggs construction of the law to be without warrant by any reasonable rule of interpretation, and deserves to be called "infamous." The righteous indignation of the people, aroused by the infamous decision, is a hopeful sign of an awakening conscience as to the liquor traffic.

As a Conference we believe in the expansion of the kingdom of Christ, but regret that the introduction of our splendid civilization into our new possessions is accompanied by the baneful influences of the saloon. The ultimate aim of our effort is expressed in the language of Hon. John Wanamaker: "There is only one side to the temperance question, and that is, prohibition." To this end, therefore, we approve of every legitimate method of curtailing the power of the saloon, and of lessening the crime of drunkenness in our land.

We judge that the temperance question is of such vital importance as to demand recognition at our Conference session, and respectfully suggest that at our meeting next year an evening be set apart for a grand temperance rally.

WOMAN'S WORK IN THE CHURCH.

Woman's work in the church is worthy of our profound consideration. Only as the gospel prevails, will woman have her divinely ordained place in the various relationships of life. Her many bright names that shine in all dispensations of Providence, indicates something of the purpose of God concerning her part in the evangelization of the world. In the church of to-day, through the unfolding plans of God, new, ever-larging fields of Christian activity are open to consecrated womanhood. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st, That we believe the organized forms of Christian activity among the women of our church, and which have received the authoritative sanction of our church, are in harmony with the will of God.

2d, That we will enconrage in our pastoral charges in every proper way, both in public and in private, the development and high usefulness of the auxiliaries of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies, where such exist, and, where they do not exist, will arrange for and welcome the visitation to our churches of any authorized representatives of either of these societies, who may come with a view of organizing auxiliaries.

3d, That an efficient Conference Board, consisting of nine members, at least four of whom shall be women, be appointed by the Conference to carry out, as far as practicable, the provisions of the discipline regarding the work of deaconesses among us.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

This Society has had a year of great prosperity. Twenty-five new organizations have been added to the list of societies. Six of these are Young Ladies' societies, and two are Children's Bands. We do not have a complete list of the "Light Bearers" (children under six years of age), but many of these are enrolled. We have a total of 119 societies — 94 are Women's societies, 14 are Young Women's, and 11 are Children's Bands. We have a total membership of 3,542, an increase of 514.

As a Conference, we pay $400 each year for the support of one of our own girls, Miss Emma Lamb, now a missionary in India. We also pay $236 for medical work in Barielly, India. Both Fort Wayne and Goshen Districts support their Bible readers in Japan, and the Leagues of Richmond District support a girl in Bignoir, India. Taylor University supports two scholars, one in Japan and one in India. The "Gleaners," connected with this school, support a girl in India. Besides these, we have, supported by individuals or societies, 14 Bible readers, 37 girls, 2 village schools, and shares in Iong Bing Training School, amounting to $70. In the last month, more than $150 has been sent for famine relief.

During the year, $48 has been raised for the Baroda orphanage, $100 to name a room in Kiu Kiang hospital for your Conference Secretary, $82 for the "Pheba Rowe" Evangelistic Band in India, $519 to send a new missionary; $484 was realized from the week of prayer and self-denial, and the thank offering, as far as reported, is $1,100 — making a total of $8,053.51; an increase of $2,104.91 over last year. It has been raised by the Districts, as follows:

District.	This Year.	Increase.	No. Aux.
Fort Wayne	$1,202 02	$143 51	20
Goshen	1,432 02	346 73	23
Kokomo	1,039 35	308 99	23
Muncie	2,244 96	634 25	26
Richmond	1,119 83	425 62	16
Warsaw	916 47	165 15	11

All of the thank offering this year is to go toward building a home and school in Mieng Ching, China, or to the Lucknow College. We trust that every Society will make their offering equal a dollar a member, and increase their membership and subscribers to the Missionary Friend, and so get their name upon the Roll of Honor. Yours, for service,

Mrs. C. G. Hudson,
Conference Secretary,
Decatur, Indiana.

Mrs. M. E. Mendenhall,
Conference Treasurer,
Union City, Indiana.

WOMAN'S HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

We are always glad to hear of success in any noble undertaking, and we know that you will share with us in the very great pleasure we have in announcing the continuous growth and prosperity of our Conference organization.

The Districts are well organized, and held very successful meetings last fall. The Annual Convention of the Conference was held at Kokomo, and was of unusual interest. Seven Auxiliaries and one Band have been organized during the year.

Many of the Auxiliaries are enthusiastic in securing new members, and quite a number have been placed on the "Roll of Honor," having secured ten new members.

Our Elizabeth Rust Auxiliary at large is increasing in membership. Life members have been added during the year.

Subscriptions to the "Woman's Home Missions" and "Children's Home Missions" have been increased.

Our special days, as Thank-Offering, and Day of Humiliation, and Prayer, have been observed.

In addition to the regular work of our Society, we support a Missionary at Thayer Home, Atlanta, Ga., scholars in Harwood, New Jersey, Ritter, Mothers Jewels, Jessie Lee and Thayer Homes, and special contributions have been sent to the following: Dulce, New Mexico; Oriental Work, California; Lucy Webb, Hays Training School, and Rust Hall, Washington, D. C.; Marcy Home, Chicago; Deaconess work in Utah; New Work in Kinsey, Ala.; Immigrant Work; New Work in Porto Rico; and to our own Deaconess Work at Indianapolis.

All of our Auxiliaries have been sharing in the increased interest of our special work.

The Methodist Episcopal Hospital and Deaconess Home of Indiana, of which we are a part, has purchased well located ground, and hope, at no late date, to erect substantial buildings; at present we are located at No. 419 East Vermont St., Indianapolis. The Home is already demonstrating its practical utility, and is constantly growing in favor. We have three deaconesses in the Home, two visiting, and one nurse. Very gratifying reports are coming in from the efficient ministry of these deaconesses.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society, with loyalty and courage, assumes her share of the greath Twentieth Century movement of Methodism, she voluntarily undertakes to raise $200,000, and has also agreed to secure 25,000 new adult members, and a subscription list of 20,000 to Woman's Home Missions.

North Indiana Conference apportionment is $5,000; 665 new members, and 115 subscribers to Woman's Home Missions. I am pleased to report that this work has been enthusiastically entered upon, and we expect by Decomber 31st, 1901, to have our apportionment in full.

We are trusting that this closing year of the present century, our Woman's Home Missionary Society, of North Indiana Conference, may nobly meet her full share of obligation, mindful of the words of our Master: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." Stimulated by the earnest appeals for help, we would with loyal devotion take up the work of the year, believing we shall have the approving smile of Him, "whose we are and whom we serve," we devoutly pray that we may, as nearly as possible, merit his blessed "Well done."

Mrs. L. H. Bunyan,

Conference Corresponding Secretary,

Richmond, Indiana.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That we hereby express our gratitude for the splendid hospitality extended to us by the Pastor, Rev. C. H. Brown, and the members and friends of this church, and the other churches of this city.

That we appreciate the kindness of the St. Joseph Valley Bank, for the favors it has shown us. And to the newspapers, for the publication of the proceedings of the Conference.

That we hereby express our thanks to the Central Passenger Association, for the favors it has shown us in the reduced rates on all railroads.

That we appreciate the high executive ability of our beloved Bishop Foss; the wise, faithful and brotherly manner in which he has presided over this session of our Conference. May our Merciful Father spare him to the Church, in health and strength, for the discharge of his official duties.

WHEREAS, The membership of our Church have been greatly blessed and strengthened in Spirit, and, as we believe, the attention of the citizens of our city, who are not members of any church denomination, has been arrested and directed to higher and more devout thinking toward the Creator of all Good by the spiritual character of the meetings held in our city during the past week; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the membership of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, of Elkhart, Indiana;

1st, That we express our hearty appreciation and thanks to the North Indiana Conference and to the Lay Electoral Conference for their presence in our city.

2d, That our thanks are due and are hereby expressed to the members of said conferences and others for the able, entertaining, educational and spiritual quickening addresses to which we have been privileged to listen.

3d, That we tender our thanks also to the North Indiana Conference Quartette and to our Deaconess, Miss Iva May Durham, for the soul-stirring and inspiring music furnished while sojourning in our city.

4th, That we desire to especially thank, and do hereby most earnestly thank your presiding officer, our Bishop Foss, for his exercise of high Christian character and sympathetic and brotherly spirit, and for his eloquent and powerful address delivered to us on Sunday morning. We pray that long years of effective service may be added to his already eminently useful life.

5th, That before the finger of time shall have pointed many years hence, your honorable bodies may once more visit our city, and fill it once again to overflowing with the true spirit of Christian fellowship.

Signed, C. H. BROWN, Pastor.

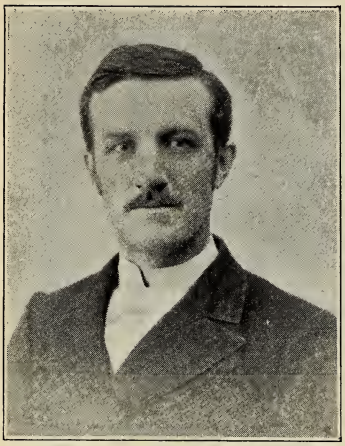
Obituary.

EDWIN TIMBERLAKE GREGG.



Christianity vindicates her claim for universal acceptance, before the tribunal of reason, conscience and will, by the character she builds. The largest obtainable recognition is based upon the quality of manhood determined by Christian standards. Such recognition is not bestowed for the gratification of sordid feelings, personal vanity or inordinate ambition. This the world persistently withholds. But the world's meed of praise for unselfishness, and the Christ-like spirit incarnate in human nature, is both boundless and resistless. In this manner additional lustre is added to Christianity through the exercise of her power for the world's betterment. The subject of this sketch was the living embodiment of all the Christian virtues which command universal favorable recognition in life, and in death forever embalmed him in the memories of a people, sad because of their irreparable loss, but hopeful, established in the truth and aspiring in righteousness, because of his teaching and the inspiration of his character. Those whom God thus crowns let no man discrown.

Edwin Timberlake Gregg was born in Peru, Indiana, February 1, 1861, and died in Kokomo, Indiana, May 30, 1899. He received his early training in the public schools in Peru, and after graduation there received higher scholastic attainments in DePauw University. Failing health prevented his completing the course in that institution. In 1883 he was married to Miss Eva Kenyon, of Grundy Centre, Iowa, who, with two children—Naomi, aged eleven, and Kenyon, aged seven—survive him.

For a few years he was engaged in business in Iowa, and then returned to Peru, Indiana, where he formed a partnership with his father, who was a veteran merchant in the dry goods business.

In youth it was his custom to carry a small pocket Testament, which he would read during spare moments. One day while at school, with his geography before him, he took occasion to look into his Testament, and while doing so, responded to an impression that he ought immediately to dedicate his life unreservedly to God. He always dated his converson from that event. He united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and ever afterward was an active and efficient member of the same. On March 4, 1890, he was licensed to preach by the Kokomo District Conference, at Jolietville, Indiana, the Rev. J. E. Ervin, Presiding Elder. Yielding to a positive conviction of duty, emphasized by a clear and peremptory call to the traveling ministry, he forsook all and was admitted to the North Indiana Conference, April 6, 1891, having been recommended by the Peru Quarterly Conference. In his diary for that day, he wrote the following: "When the appointments were read, I was assigned to Roanoke. My first appointment! Oh, how my heart goes out in prayer to God that He may give me the hearts of the people, and that there may be a deep, stirring revival — the result of this action of the Conference." On April 17, 1891, he wrote of his departure from Peru, as follows: "With sad hearts and tear-besprinkled cheeks, we left our sorrowing dear ones and started out to do the Master's will. It is hard, oh, so hard to leave home and kindred and dear friends, to start out alone to battle for Christ; but He is mighty and will sustain."

He served the Roanoke charge two years and the Decatur charge five years. He was appointed to Grace church, Kokomo, March 28, 1898, to which charge he was reappointed in April, 1899.

While his ministry covered the brief period of eight years, no pen save that wielded by the recording angel can record the good he accomplished. Aside from his splendid achievement, he was so unique in character and in method of work as to make it impossible to give a stranger an adequate conception of the man. To know him, one must have had the inestimable benefit of his companionship. To hear the tones of his voice giving expression to great ideas produced by the noblest impulses, and surcharged with emotions emanating from a heart of intense love for humanity and supreme hate for every foe of the human family, was to experience an impulse for good never to be forgotten. All who knew him will forever cherish the blessed memory of his smile, his fraternal handshake, and the genial warmth of his great heart.

He was an affable man. One always found him approachable and was easy in his presence. Always courteous and kind to every one, his friends would prize the opportunity of engaging him in conversation, which was always entertaining and profitable. He was a generous man. The many poor who have been the recipients of his charity, will hold him in everlasting remembrance. His altruistic spirit led him to spend much time and energy in giving helpful counsel to those who were in trouble, and planning for their relief.

The immediate cause of his death was nervous prostration, superinduced by la grippe. His suffering was intense, covering a period of only six days. From Wednesday until the following Monday night there had been hope of recovery, "but at that time he became much worse, and those who watched by his bedside knew that the end was near at hand. All through the quiet, sunny hours of Tuesday he lived on, though it was for him a day of blight and not of blossoms. Friends from distant cities hearing of his illness, hastened to him, and stood with sad, anxious faces about the grassy dooryard of his home. Five physicians were at hand, and battled to foster the faint spark of life that remained. But every report from his bedside was more and more discouraging. At last the shadows grew long over the close of the summer day; the gold of evening stole up and met the dusk of night behind the silent stars, and then it was, while angel hands, hidden from mortal eyes, shifted the scenery of heaven, the white soul of Edwin T. Gregg broke its earthly fetters and ascended to the God who gave it."

He preached his last sermon in Grace church on Sunday evening, May 21, 1899. Providence seems to have directed his thought so that his last work was the embodiment of his great soul, and the last impression the world received was the inspiring principle of his pure life. For several Sunday evenings he had been preaching on the Ten Commandments. The last one had been presented. In concluding the series, he took for his text what has been called the eleventh Commandment: "That ye love one another." Such was his last message to the world. After all, while we desired him longer with us, was it not a fitting place to close his earthly career? And do we not all see in this, that God had fitted, completed, perfected him for a larger usefulness and better happiness than this world could give?

The funeral was the largest ever held in Howard county. Business was suspended. Strangers in the city were surprised to find the saloons closed. Would that they had remained closed forever! The services were conducted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. M. S. Marble. Fully one-third of the North Indiana Conference were present. Rev. A. S. Wooten spoke of him as a layman; Rev. F. T. Simpson, as a preacher; Rev. W. H. Daniel, as a pastor; and the Rev. W. D. Parr, as a man. The remains, under the direction of the Knights Templar, were placed in the receiving vault in Crown Point Cemetery, where they remained till June 22, 1899, when they were removed to the beautiful cemetery overlooking his native city. Here the burial service of the Methodist Episcopal Church was rendered by the Presiding Elder, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Jackson, pastor at Peru, "and all that was mortal of a majestic life was consigned to earth amid the tears and regrets of a sorrowing throng."

"He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord."

M. S. Marble.

Kokomo, Ind., March 16, 1900.

HENRIETTA B. MANN.*

Henrietta B. Park was born October 22, 1836. Her father was Wesley Park, a pioneer of DeKalb county, Indiana. The family came from Ohio and Virginia originally. Her education was obtained at home and at Fort Wayne College in its early days. By the death of her mother, she was left to care for younger brothers and sisters, and their deep affection for her are the best testimony to that care. Her father was a man of strong character, well-to-do in life, and of much refinement.

She was married to John Morris Mann, October 31, 1861, and for twenty years thereafter her life was that of wife of an itinerant minister. After the death of Mr. Mann, she removed to Greencastle, Indiana, to educate her sons.

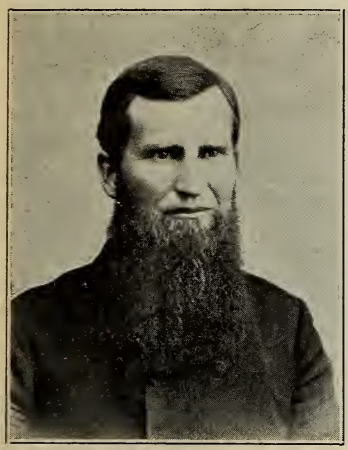
REV. CHARLES HARVEY.



Rev. Charles Harvey, son of John and Mary Harvey, was born near Brookville, Franklin county, Indiana, September 26, 1841, and died January 19, 1900, aged 58 years. His early boyhood days were spent on his father's farm. He afterward successfully taught school. After the civil war began, he volunteered, serving his country more than three years. He was engaged in Sherman's campaign until July, 1864, when he received an honorable discharge. March 22, 1866, he was united in marriage with Miss Carrie Emery, who has joyfully and faithfully shared his life. He was happily converted in his early youth, and united with the Mount Carmel Methodist Episcopal Church, near Greenfield, Ind. He entered the ministry early in life, filling the charges of Huntsville, New Corner, North Muncie Circuit, Perkinsville, Cadiz, Charlottesville, Fountain City, Ridgeville, North Webster, Andrews and Eaton. It was during his last year of work at New Corner in 1876, while attending a camp-meeting at Albany, that he received the second great work of grace, giving him a clean heart, since which his life and work have been deeply spiritual. He has filled the pulpits of Eaton Circuit, for the past three years, with credit to himself and to his Church. He has been a very faithful man in his pastoral work. He ascribed all that he was to the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. He was a capable, honorable business man, a faithful and true neighbor, a loyal citizen, and a genial and heroic Christian gentleman. His last sickness was brief, but much of the time coupled with intense suffering. He filled his pulpit in Eaton on the last Sunday before his death, although suffering greatly at the time. His last public testimony was, "If these should be my last words to you, I want you to know I am sure of heaven." The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Eaton, Ind., Monday, January 22, at 10 o'clock. Visiting ministers of his Church acted as pall-bearers, and many clergymen preceded the casket into the church, which was overcrowded, many being unable to get into the church, but stood with bowed heads outside during the services. The memorial services were conducted by Rev. C. U. Wade, the Presiding Elder of the district, assisted by Revs. H. C. Smith, of Albany; S. Billheimer, of Farmland; L. J. Naftzger, of Muncie; L. M. Krider, of Hartford City; P. J. Albright, of Alexandria; J. B. Cook, of Albany, and C. O. Spencer, of Shideler, who paid in loving words their tributes of respect to the life and character of their departed brother in the gospel. Revs. R. S. Reid, J. A. Ruley, E. L. Jones, J. F. Bailey, G. W. Martin, and the pastors of the local churches of other denominations were present. The services were tender and beautiful. The local Woman's Christian Temperance Union attended the funeral in a body. Interment in Beach Grove Cemetery, Muncie.

MARY C. PITTENGER.

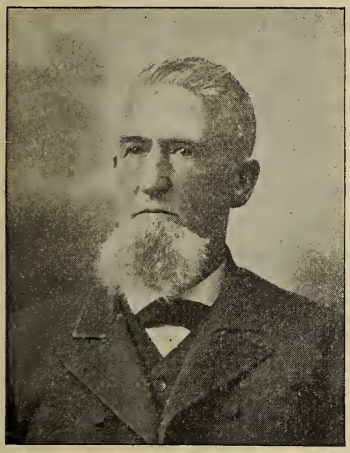
Mary C. Marsh was born near Xenia, Ohio, December 7, 1865, and went to her eternal reward from the parsonage home, in Philadelphia, Indiana, August 14, 1899, at the age of 35 years, 8 months and 7 days. In early childhood she came with her parents to Delaware County, Indiana, where she was married to our brother, M. C. Pittenger, October 23, 1891. Two children came into their home, to add joy and happiness to the lives of the parents. Both children, together with the father, feel keenly the loss of a saintly mother and devoted, christian wife, who, by nature as well as by grace, was pre-eminently fitted to be the wife of a Methodist minister.

The religious life of Sister Pittenger commenced in the year 1885, in a gracious revival held in Union Church, on Muncie Circuit, under the pastorate of J. A. Ruly. Her conversion was clear and positive, her surrender to the Lord was complete, and God gave her such a clear evidence of her acceptance that she never seriously doubted her relation to Him. She was trained in a Methodist home, and dearly loved the work of the church and gladly shared in the toils of the ministry.

She often expressed a desire for a better experience; this was brought about by a wonderful vision, in February, 1899, in which she seemed to see Christ and the angels pass before her, and heard the music of heaven. At first she did not realize the blessed presence that had come to her, but, later, as the vision was repeated, she discerned her Lord and received a wonderful baptism of power, and ever after that Sister Pittenger was a different woman. The long wished for victory had come, and, from that time on, her life was one of victory in the Lord and of superlative beauty among men.

Early came her crowning by her Lord, and out of the shadow and darkness comes the light of the Son of God, and we seem to hear Him say, "What I do, thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." Funeral services were conducted at Philadelphia by Rev. F. M. Stone, and at Union Church by Rev. C. U. Wade, C. J. Graves and others. Her body was laid to rest in the cemetery near DeSoto, Indiana.

REV. NATHAN D. SHACKELFORD.



Nathan D. Shackelford was born in Fayette county, Ohio, October 22, 1826, and was translated April 7, 1900, at 4 A. M. When he was nineteen years of age, his parents moved from their Ohio home to Wabash county, Indiana. Eight years later, April 9, 1853, Rev. G. W. Bowers, the Presiding Elder of the Marion District, sent him out to preach the Gospel.

So diligent was he in his studies, so earnest and ready in utterance, and so manifestly called of God to the holy ministry, that he was received into the North Indiana Conference in the autumn of the same year, at Richmond, Indiana. He was sent to Tipton Mission, and has served since, the following charges: Cicero, Galveston, Normandy, Somerset, Jerome, Tipton the second time, Perrysburg, New Waverly, Decatur, New Haven. In 1872 transferred to Southern Illinois Conference, but returned in 1876, and was sent to Market Street, Logansport; Leesburg, Hagerstown, Palestine, Larwill; Trinity Church, Fort Wayne. From here he superannuated, and moved to Warsaw, Indiana. This step was taken largely because of the ill health of his wife.

He was married to Miss Mary J. Wilson, by the Rev. Charles W. Stafford, May 2, 1854, in Clinton county, Indiana, who has shared with him all the victories and vicissitudes of an itinerant minister's life.

Since his superannuation, he has been actively engaged in preaching in school houses regularly, without hope of pay, but solely for the love of God and the work, never deterred by the heat, cold or storm. So earnest, faithful and persistent was he, that Rev. L. W. Munson, who was his Presiding Elder for seven years, said of him: "He never made a failure in his life."

Bro. Shackelford was a man of exceeding sweetness of disposition. He preached a gospel of sweetness and power because of its hopefulness.

Filled with the conscious knowledge of his own personal relation to Christ, he longed to persuade others to accept Christ as a tender, loving Saviour, and consecrate to Him themselves and their service. His was a wonderfully successful ministry in the winning of souls for the Master, and we feel sure that not only in this world are many who look upon him as a spiritual father, but many whom he had been instrumental in bringing to salvation were ready to welcome him into the Eternal City. A good man, full of the Holy Ghost and of faith has left us, but he hath entered into rest. "Servant of God, well done," can truly be said of him.

The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Warsaw, Tuesday, 2 p. m., and were conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. King.

The services were attended by the Odd Fellows, in a formal manner, and by the citizens of Warsaw, crowding the church to its fullest capacity. Short addresses were delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Lewellen, Rev. J. A. Beatty and Rev. S. Light. Rev. E. M. Baker, Rev. J. A. Patterson and Rev. P. J. Albright also participated. Besides these brethren, there were present several other members of the Conference, whose interest in the occasion showed the great respect all entertained for our departed brother.

MRS. JANE MESSICK ROBERTS.

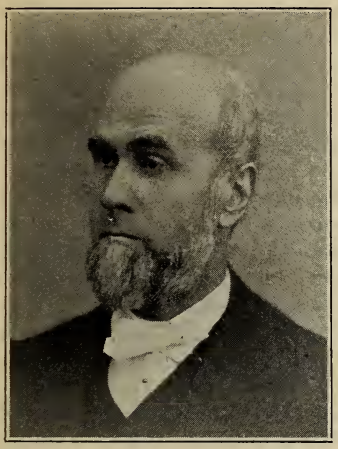
Jane Messick Roberts was born in Fleming county, Kentucky, January 25, 1823. She spent the first few years of her childhood on a farm, which lay on the banks of the Licking river. She was brought up by devoted Christian parents, her father being a class leader and exhorter, and his home a preaching place for the early Methodist pioneers. The family altar was erected before she was born. The effect of family religion was so favorable, that she united with the Methodist Episcopal Church when only in her twelfth year, making a public profession of faith in the Lord, and ever after living a consistent and faithful Christian life. For some time she deeply felt the need of cleansing from sin, and began to earnestly seek this blessing. Soon the answer came, and she realized that she was saved from all sin through the sanctification of the Spirit. She loved the church, and was a faithful attendant upon all the means of grace. She delighted in the class-meeting, where her voice was heard in prayer and testimony.

In 1866 she was married to Rev. Lewis Roberts, of the North Indiana Conference, and at once entered upon the duties of a minister's wife. In all of their charges she was a faithful teacher in the Sabbath School, until failing health and domestic cares forced her to resign her much loved work.

Besides filling her place as her husband's co-laborer in the vineyard of the Lord, she assumed the care of two of his children by a former wife. Having no children of her own, she lavished a mother's love on these committed to her care. Her love was reciprocated by the children, even in later life. On May 16, 1899, the son from Havana, Cuba, sent this beautiful telegram: "Dear mother, I pray you may be better when this reaches you; in memory, a thousand tender things fill my heart. Cannot leave just now. Lovingly, Elmer."

She had been a great sufferer, wondering why she was here, but ready to go or stay. But she has gone, in the triumphs of the christian's faith and hope. In great peace she died at 1:15 p. m., May 31, 1899, aged 76 years, 4 months, and 4 days.

REV. REUBEN TOBEY.



The subject of this sketch was born March 22, 1830, and died July 12, 1899. His ancestors came from Germany and located in Washington County, Maryland. He grew to manhood on a farm near Dayton, Ohio. He first settled in Goshen, Ind., and was engaged in mercantile pursuits. He soon felt a call to preach the Gospel, and loyally answered the call. He entered the traveling connection in 1857, and served the following charges: LaGrange, LaGro, Huntington, Wayne St., Fort Wayne, Pearl St., Richmond, Newcastle, Bluffton, Peru, Winchester, Kendallville, Pendleton, Columbia City, Coesse, Cherubusco, Cambridge City and Selma. Our brother was a popular preacher, much in demand, always successful. One of the strong characters of the Conference. He was active for a period of twenty-five years, at which time he sustained a severe injury that disabled him from the active work. He was on the superannuated list for seventeen years. During these years he was ever busy — for the Master, and for several years he was agent for the Seaman's Bethel.

He was first married to Adaline Huffman, who died at the close of his pastorate at Newcastle. On the 27th of June he was married again, to Miss Nettie Mann, who survives him. He leaves three sons and two daughters, a brother and one sister. We miss the face of our beloved brother at Conference. He loved the North Indiana Conference. After sixty-nine years of life, and at the close of forty-two years in the ministry, he has left the scenes below to join the activities above. A hero has gone out from among us. What victory awaits the faithful. What joy he now is having. O, how happy. Rest in peace. The funeral services were conducted at Fifth Street, Richmond, by the Pastor, A. G. Neal, assisted by Revs. Lamport, Gillam, McCarty, Hill and Metts. His body sleeeps in the cemetery at Richmond.

MRS. BELT.*

Barzilla Tison Bancom, daughter of Thomas and Mary Bancom, was born near Edgar, O'Brien County, West Tennessee, February 15, 1858, and died at her home in Leesburg, Ind., Nov. 4, 1899, aged 41 years, 8 months and 18 days. When seventeen years of age she, with the other members of her father's family, became members of the M. E. Church, which was organized at that time by the Rev. J. T. Pender, a missionary, whose duty it was to organize classes for those who were without church relations on account of their Union sentiments.

* Could not obtain photo from which to make picture for Minutes.—SECRETARY.

On March 26, 1878, she was united in marriage with the Rev. J. D. Belt, who had succeeded to the Missionary field, and to this union were born three sons and one daughter.

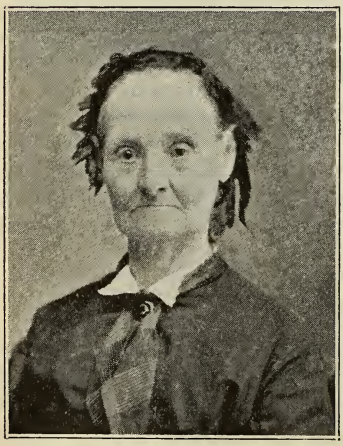
From the time that she became the wife of an M. E. Preacher, Sister Belt took a great interest in the welfare of souls. Even after, through affliction, she could not longer mingle publicly with the people, she expressed the most intense interest in the progress of the work of the Master in the salvation of souls.

Three years ago the 13th of November last, she was stricken down with a severe hemorrhage of the lungs, which was soon followed by others. From that time until her death she was a confirmed invalid. She grew weaker with each day until finally, on Saturday, November 4, the weakened body could no longer restrain the spirit, and it took its flight to glory and to God.

The funeral services were held in the M. E. Church, in Leesburg, the following Sunday. Rev. A. A. Turner officiated, assisted by a number of brethren, and her body was interred in the beautiful cemetery near by.

She leaves, to mourn their great loss, her two sons, one having preceded her to the spirit land, one daughter and her dear companion, besides a host of relatives and dear friends. Peace to her ashes.

APPHIA JONES STRIGHT.



The subject of this memoir was born May 6, 1813, at White Hall, New York. Her parentage was of a loyal type of people, imparting to her a strong character, which fitted her so well for the place she was called to fill. She was united in marriage to D. F. Stright, in 1835. That year he entered the local ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and after three years he joined the traveling connection by uniting with the Indiana Conference. From that time until 1887 she shared all the toils and activities of the itinerancy. Her educational advantages were limited, but she loved culture and was a great reader of good literature. Mother Stright was, duriug her years of activity, truly devoted to the work of the church. In her early days the capacity of the parsonage was often tried in providing entertainment for those attending quarterly meeting and in going to and from Conference. She was kind, and her heart overflowed in ministeries of love and sympathy for those in need. She had a keen interest in every movement of moral reform. She believed in the church as the great leader. She truly loved our beloved Methodism; its polity and doctrines were her delight. She lived a pure Christian life. Her faith never failed; her testimony was, "I know whom I have believed, and am not willing to remove my cause out of His hands." She delighted in all the services of God's house, and whenever able was in her place. Though her duties were at times severe, she never complained, and said often, near the close of life, "I have never, for one moment, regretted my choice." Truly, a mother in Israel has served her own generation by the will of God.

October 28, 1899, at the early hour of 2:30 in the morning, our dear mother fell asleep in Jesus, and went to join the victories in Christ. She rests in peace. Glorious victory! She is happy forever.

The funeral services took place from the church in Knightstown, on Sunday afternoon, October 29, 1899, conducted by Rev. E. F. Hasty, a life-long friend of the family. Her body rests by the side of her husband, in Glen Cove cemetery at Knightstown.

LAY ELECTORAL CONFERENCE,

APRIL 6, 1900.

The Lay Electoral Conference convened in the Presbyterian Church, of Elkhart, Indiana, April 6th, at 10 o'clock A. M., and was called to order by James W. Sales, Retiring Secretary.

This was followed by roll call and presentation of credentials. Lay Delegates responded to roll call.

Hon. Charles C. Binkley, of Richmond, Indiana, was then unanimously elected Chairman, and Herman F. Willkie, of Elwood, Indiana, was elected Secretary.

After a few introductory remarks by the Chairman, on motion the Chair appointed the following Committees, on credentials: E. E. Mummert, Goshen; Jno. Zimmerman, Auburn; George Asire, Logansport; Mrs. G. H. Myers, Fortville; J. M. Starr, Portland Circuit; A. M. Gibson, Wabash.

Committee on Rules.

J. F. Elliott, of Kokomo; Josiah Drewitt, of Fort Wayne, Indiana; W. D. Jordan, Hagerstown, Indiana; E. S. Sacket, Ligonier, Indiana; Mrs. J. E. Ferris, Anderson, Indiana; Adam Foust, Warren, Indiana.

Committee on Resolutions.

J. W. Thompson, Chairman; A. S. Coverdale, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; D. Zook, Nappanee, Ind.; G. C. Miller, Peru, Ind.; Mrs. Josephine Walmer, Montpelier, Ind.; D. A. Case, LaGro, Ind.

Committee on Miscellaneous Business.

Mrs. Clariza Buckman, Corrunna, Ind.; J. H. Lewhart, Decatur, Ind.; George Asire, Logansport, Ind.; Mrs. L. J. Retts, Parker, Ind.; A. B. Dunbar, Centerville, Ind.; H. L. Groninger, Silver Lake, Ind.

Rev. F. T. Simpson, was then introduced and announced as chairman of a Committee appointed by the Annual Conference, that in accordance with a resolution adopted by that body, he extended an invitation to the Lay Electoral Conference, to meet in joint session with the Annual Conference at 4 P. M. On motion, the invitation was unanimously accepted, and a resolution adopted to meet with the Annual Conference, at the Methodist Episcopal Church, in joint session, at the hour and time above set out.

Conference opened at 1 : 30 P. M., by singing. Dr. H. W. Bennet, of Anderson, led in prayer. The Roll of Districts was then called, for nominations for delegates and reserved delegates to the General Conference, to be held in May, at Chicago, Illinois, and the following persons were placed in nomination, to-wit:

Fort Wayne District—A. B. Cline, Bluffton, Ind.; C. B. Stemen, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; William Enslim, Ft. Wayne, Ind.; Thomas A. Doan, Ossian, Ind.; J. L. Cavin, Kokomo, Ind.; W. E. Groves, Milford, Ind.

Muncie District—A. A. Small, Anderson, Ind.; A. L. Kerwood, Muncie, Ind.; B. G. Shinn, Hartford City.

Warsaw District—George T. Herrick, Wabash; Charles F. Mather, Marion, Ind.; William F. Swain, Warren, Ind.

The Chair appointed the following persons as tellers: John W. Tingle, William H. Waterfall, S. C. Sacket, G. W. Boyer, Mrs. L. A. Retts, H. C. Galbreath.

The ballot was then taken, and the tellers retired to ascertain the result of the same. During the count of the ballots, the Committee on Resolutions, by its Chairman, J. W. Thompson, reported the following resolutions:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Your Committee on Resolutions beg to submit the following report:

We felicitate ourselves on this magnificent representation of the Layity of the North Indiana Conference, convened as the Lay Electoral Conference, as the fullest representation the Lay Conference has probably ever enjoyed.

We feel that God has been gracious to our beloved Methodism, within the bounds of this Conference, especially, and we rejoice in the general prosperity of the Church.

It is our desire, and we are glad to be able to aid, in any manner, our brethren — the ministers; and our aim in all we do is to advance, with them, the common interests of the Church.

We congratulate ourselves on the prospects of equal Lay representation in the coming General Conference, believing that it will result in the general good of all Methodism.

We still believe, and shall ever maintain, that in as much as our Sisters, the women, divide with us the burdens and responsibilities of the Church, and perform more than their full part of all the work, they have equal rights with us to share in its distinctions and honors, and that neither prejudice, nor assumed fear of constitutional infractions, shall hereafter debar them from equal admission to all representative bodies of the Church.

It is the sense of this Lay Electoral Conference that the time limit, as now established by our Discipline, is wise, judicious and equitable, and, we believe, satisfactory to both clergy and layity, and we hereby request and instruct our delegates to the General Conference to use their influence and votes against any attempted change in the so-called time limit.

We believe the cardinal factor in right education is loyalty to God. Hence, it is the Church's first duty to make the largest provision for Christian education. It is evident that the Methodist Episcopal Church in Indiana will meet her responsibilities, or fall and lose prestige and power on a ratio with the equipment, attendance and spirituality of DePauw University.

Hence, the opportunities and the necessities are laid upon us to provide the larger equipments for our children in our own great school in the strategic State; for the equipments of DePauw University to-day will not meet the demands of to-morrow. Our young people will seek the best opportunities somewhere. To let them be trained wholly by sister churches, or the State, would not only expose us to just criticism, but we should lose in sympathy and loyalty to our traditions, and increasing numbers of our brightest and best young people would leave us. Therefore,

Resolved, 1st, We endorse the plans providing for the twentieth century thank offering in our State.

2d. As the laymen are coming more and more to take part in the general government and leadership of the Church, we therefore assure the ministers of our Conference, and the laymen of Indiana, that we will take our full share of work and giving to raise the $200,000 pledged by our North Indiana Conference to the twentieth century gift to the Endowment of DePauw Universlty.

3d. We have looked into the present policy and methods in the management of the finances of DePauw University, especially endowments, and we not only heartily endorse the methods, but we assure our people, and friends of DePauw University everywhere, that endowments are not only handled carefully and skillfully, but safely.

4th. We believe there is no other place where money can be given to go further in equipping our Methodism and the Kingdom of Christ for larger victories to-morrow, and to make abiding our civil institutions, than to give endowments of DePauw University. We, therefore, call upon all our people to make a thank offering to the endowment of DePauw University, as an expression of gratitude to God and a gift for larger victories in the new centuries.

5th. As it is absolutely necessary to maintain the present teaching force in the University, and also to keep this school out of debt, we therefore endorse the plan of getting small gifts from all our people, to aggregate not less than twenty-five cents per member, for current expenses.

6th. We endorse the second Sunday in May as " DePauw Day " in Indiana; and also the fourth Thursday in January as the day set apart for prayer for colleges, and also for God's blessings upon the twentieth century movement in our State. And we will join heartily with our ministers and people in observing these days.

We look upon the saloon as injurious to our civilization, corrupting to the public morals, and a menace to our free institutions.

We believe that all Methodists, and all other Christian and temperance people, should join hands in driving the blighting business from our midst.

We believe the Anti-Saloon League affords one of the methods by which all temperance and Christian people can harmoniously unite to crush this monstrous evil, and we earnestly urge the Layity of our Church, and the friends of temperance, to join in this crusade against crime.

We heartily commend the Epworth Hospital at South Bend, Ind., to the consideration of our Methodist people.

The thanks of this Conference are eminently due, and are hereby heartily tendered the generous people of the City of Elkhart for the hospitality accorded the members of this Conference.

And we also hereby extend our thanks to the Presbyterian Church for the use of this building in holding the sessions of our Conference.

Whereas, we now have six Presiding Elders' Districts in the North Indiana Conference, and,

WHEREAS, we now pay annually over $10,000 for the support of the six Presiding Elders, and,

WHEREAS, we believe, under the growing changes of the times and of Methodism, equally effective work could be done by three Presiding Elders, and,

WHEREAS, such a reduction in the number would be a saving of much money, and would give the various charges needed opportunities to increase the salaries of the pastors, and

WHEREAS, three of the Presiding Elders must now retire, and such a change would legislate no one out of office; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That it is the expressed desire of this Lay Electoral Conference to have the Presiding Elders' Districts reduced to three by a fair and judicious adjustment of the boundaries of the District, and,

Be it further Resolved, That a special committee of seven, one from each District, selected by the Chair, with the Chairman of this Lay Conference, ex-officio Chairman of the Committee, to present these resolutions to the Presiding Bishop of the Annual Conference, now in session, at the first opportunity, and to urge the same with such fair argument as the Committee may deem necessary.

The Chair then announced the following committee, as per resolutions adopted, concerning the reduction of Elders and Districts, as above set out: Charles C. Binkley, Chairman; Joseph W. Thompson, George C. Miller, Josephine Walmer, J. H. Lenhart, E. E. Mummert, Mrs. Alcester Carey.

The tellers having returned, the result of the first ballot was announced. The total vote cast, 138 votes, of which A. A. Small, of Anderson, received 115; A. B. Cline, of Bluffton, 105; and each having received a majority of all the votes cast, they were duly declared elected Delegates to the general Conference, and none of the other candidates having received a majority of the votes cast, another ballot was ordered. This ballot resulted in 134 votes being cast, necessary to a choice, 68, of which George T. Herrick, of Wabash, received 72, and Leonidas H. Bunyan, Richmond, 79; and they were declared duly elected Provisional Delegates to the general Conference. None of the other candidates having received a majority of the votes cast, the third ballot was ordered, the tellers having retired to ascertain the result of this ballot.

At 5 o'clock P. M. Conference re-convened, and the third ballot for provisional delegates was then announced, which resulted in 129 votes being cast, 65 necessary to a choice, of which Thomas A. Doan, of Ossian, Ind., received 73 votes, and was duly declared elected as a third Provisional Delegate.

On motion, the Secretary was then instructed to cast the entire vote of the Conference for such persons and nominees, who had received the highest vote on the first ballot, and who had not heretofore been chosen, as delegates or provisional delegates; and, in accordance with said resolution and motion, the Secretary cast the vote of the Conference for Reserve Delegates: C. F. Mather, of Marion, Ind.; John L. Cavin, of Ligonier; B. G. Shinn, Hartford City; Asbury L. Kerwood, of Muncie, Ind.; and William E. Groves, of Milford, Ind.; and they were each duly declared elected as reserve delegates.

On motion, a vote of thanks was tendered the Presbyterian people, for courtesies shown in the use of the church, and on further motion a vote of thanks was tendered the Chair, for the effective and impartial manner in which he presided over the sessions of the Lay Electoral Conference.

There being no further business, a motion to adjourn, sine die, was unanimously adopted.

Charles C. Binkley, Chairman.

Herman F. Willkie, Secretary.

Appointment Record.

APPOINTMENT RECORD.

The following Record is a continuation of that prepared by Rev. L. W. Monson, as found in his valuable Manual, and brought down to 1889. An effort is made to condense as much as possible by using abbreviations easily understood. The figures "18" are omitted from the years given, as all the appointments are in this century. In some instances no record is made of service in other Conferences, because of the lack of data.
